Mr.

Jame Moser

On or about October 2011 I went to the residential life building; I was very sick, with spasms to the spine and neck. I knock a semi-open door, Ms Maung's office (I did not know her); she was with 2 other students, I asked if I could use her office phone, because i was feeling very sick and that I needed transportation; I also told her that I was disable and that the college knew. She said to go back to Humanity building and ask there, she was very arrogant, and I told her I was going to complain. She later accussed me of a misconduct issue. I file a complaint with QUI-QUI BALASCIO--which by you should be familiar with, she is the person that orchestrated the retaliation action 2 weeks ago--and she said that...see attached. Balascio is the same lady that put me on provation two eeks ago, she is also being named on both "Intention of Legal Actions". I did attended to the hearring. Santos found me responsible; he said I never attended the hearing. Later I found that Balascio, Santos and Maung work together. I could have a severa compression on my discs that could killed me. And this is what I get.

Mrs. Kowalczyk.

On the upcoming--no date yet--preliminary hearing, I strongly recommend Ms Jone stays within all legal parameters, whether Federal Titles and/or State law, of legal procedures. Also, be aware/notified that if I agree to any "pre/hearing" it, by no means, I will be waiving of my civil rights and further preceding or actions on a higher Judicial system of law enforcement; these may take place.

INCIDENT DESCRIPTION

On Tuesday, October 18, 2011 at 4:50pm, Melissa Jones and 2 RA's were meeting to discuss a program that would occur next week. Edward Morales walked by the door and said he needs to use the phone right now because there are documents that he needed to (either send or receive) by 5:00pm. He said that every office has sent him all over the place and sent him here to use the phone and he just wants to use the phone because he does not have a cell phone. I looked at Melissa and Melissa looked at me and then looked at Edward and said what office sent you here? I am not 100% sure but I believe he said, "do you hear me? I said I need to use the phone, I have to do this before 5:00pm, all I want is to use the phone, and nobody is letting me use the phone. I then asked what is the phone call in regards to. And he replied that he needs to use the phone for documents and why doesn't anyone let him use the phone and that he is a student and he wants to use the phone now. Melissa then looked at me and asked where he could he use a public phone.... maybe UPD? Then she looked towards his way and we both said UPD, and Victoria Stern the RA said yes, you should be able to access the phone at UPD. He then said NO, I don't want to use the phone at UPD, UPD, sent me here. I want to use the phone now. He then began pacing in agitation and he said I don't understand why everybody is so unhelpful.

Dear Mr. Morales,

I have received your email of complaint regarding you not being permitted to use a telephone in Ms. Maung's office on Tuesday, October 18, 2011. My understanding of the event is that Ms. Maung was meeting with three people in her office when you entered and demanded to use the phone.

Please be advised that nowhere in the ADA does it specify that someone who states that they are disabled has the right to interrupt meetings and demand the use of a telephone. The ADA specifies that the college provide accommodations to individuals who are registered through the Special Student Services Office. It is also specific in terms of what types of accommodations are required to be offered and to whom (i.e., those who have followed appropriate registration procedures and submitted all necessary documentation).

As such, I will not be taking any action against Ms. Maung.

Sincerely,

Sir/Madam,

I hereby request an investigation of, Again, a possible retaliation or abuse of power from the part of Purchase employee; Sandee Maung, Assistant Director of residence life. on 10/18/2011 was asked to assist a disable person in need of an emergency phone call. Miss Maung refused, which causes another violation of the American with Disability act from part of the college staff. As consequence of Ms Maung I (the student and client) advised Mrs Maung that a complaint was going to be file against her. As way of retaliation an abuse of power Mrs Santos has file the enclosed complaint. This later incident only add to the overwhelming proof that the college does not have or never had the intention of providing special confederation by being in compliance with the American with disability act. This will be added to all the other violations to the pending possible litigation.

This school asks for documents and now to give them the documents you are asking for, you wont let me use the phone. Then Melissa asked him, which office is asking you for documents. He then responded, Why do you have an attitude? Why does everyone have an attitude. I then said, we just want to know which office is requesting you to get these documents, because maybe they can allow you to use their phone. He said, NO, its already almost 5pm. I need to get this done by 5:00pm. He then looked at me and said Are you in charge here? I said no I am not in charge here. He said well who is in charge here? Then before I can answer he started getting very upset and yelling and saying he demands to use the phone now and then he asked me for my business card to which I then gave him. He said he is going to press charges and that everyone is so unhelpful and is this how we treat students to now allow them to use the phone. Alejandro then said, how long is the phone call for. Then Edward responded only a few minutes. I just need to get something (either faxed or to receive- I am not sure which one he said). Then Alejandro said, just use my phone. Then Edward looked at me and said you see? You see, even he so nice to let me use your phone. but you, you wont let me use the phone. I am going to press charges, and he then left very angrily.

INCIDENT DESCRIPTION

On Tuesday, October 18, 2011 at approximately 4:55 pm, I was meeting with Sandee Maung and two paraprofessionals when a student, now identified as Edward Morales, interrupted the meeting. He stated to the group that he needed to use a phone to fax important documents prior to 5 pm and did not have a cell phone. I looked at Sandee and we both agreed that UPD would be the best place for him to have access to a phone and relayed this information to Edward. He looked at Sandee and I and said, "No. I already came from there. They sent me here." He continued to say how he has been sent all over the campus and just needed a phone. Sandee explained that we needed more information and asked him who he needed to call. He avoided answering this question and said with a firm and slightly paniced voice that he needed a phone to call for documentation requested by the school. Sandee and I told him we understood but that we needed more information. Then Sandee or I asked who needed the documentation and that they should allow him to use their phone. He started to become irrate and continued raising his voice about how unhelpful this campus is and how everyone is angry. Sandee then explained that we were trying to help but could not just allow him to use our phones and that he should go back to the department that sent him. At that point, one of the paraprofessionals asked how long his call would be and Edward stated 2 mintues and that he just needed to fax something. The student then offered to let him use his cell phone. At that point, Edward gestured toward the student and said, "See such a nice young man willing to help." He then looked at Sandee and said, "Will you let me use your phone? Yes or no." Again, his tone was assertive, irritable, and slightly aggressive. Sandee looked at him and said, "No, we cannot just let you use our phones, you need to go back to the department requesting the material." At that point, Edward requested Sandee's card and told her he was filing a complaint across the street. He left without using the student's cell phone.

While I cannot recall every aspect of the conversation, I do know that as Sandee and I asked questions of Edward to better understand the situation, he became more and more visibly irritated and frustrated. His tone also continued to escalate and create an uncomfortable and uncertain situation, since I could not fully understand what assistance he needed and for what purpose.

It looks like Edward Morales plagiarized large parts of his translation of a poem by José Luis Borges for assignment 2.1 in SPA3800. More precisely, it looks like he used the translation by Ezequiel Zaldenwerg published on the blog whose URL is the following as the basis for his translation, changing only a few words:

<http://spanishpoems.blogspot.com/2006/12/jorge-luis-borges-two-english-poems.html>

Following my explanation below, please find attached:

- The original poem by Borges as distributed to the class
- a copy of Zaldenwerg's translation as it appears on the blog whose URL is given above
- Edward's submitted translation

There are three main kinds of evidence to support my contention of plagiarism:

Edward included, as part of his translation, paratextual material from the blog that is not part of the assigned poem. The translation on the blog has the line:
"Etiquetas: J. L. Borges"

This means "Tags: J. L. Borges" -- "tags" is a word that would only be used on a blog. It makes no sense in English or in Spanish unless you're talking about a blog. Edward includes the phrase in Spanish as part of the translated poem that he submitted for the class. This makes no sense unless he simply cut and pasted it from the blog, where it appears exactly that way because the rest of the blog is in Spanish.

2.

In the text itself, Edward uses many surprising turns of phrase that are the same turns of phrase used by Ezequiel Zaldenwerg. Two examples:

Borges's original:

The surge, that night, left me the customary shreds and odd ends: some hated friends to chat with, music for dreams, and the smoking of bitter ashes

Zaldenwerg's translation:

La marea, esa noche, me dejó los jirones y retazos disjuntos de costumbre: algunas amistades que odio, para charlar; música para sueños; la humareda de cenizas amargas.

Edward's translation:

La marea, esa noche, me dejó los jirones y retazos disjuntos como costumbre:

- algunas amistades odiosas, para charlar; música para sueños;
- la humareda de cenizas amargas.

N.B.:

- The replacement of "and" with a semicolon before "la humareda"
- The translation of "friends to chat with" as "amistades [comma] para charlar" (the comma is what necessitates the semicolon) b.

- Borges's original:

*The useless dawn finds me in a deserted streetcorner; I have outlived the night.
Nights are proud waves; darkblue topheavy waves*

Zaidenwerg's translation:

*El alba inútil me sorprende en una esquina desierta; sobreviví a la noche.
Las noches son como olas orgullosas; olas azul oscuro, de pesadas crestas,*

Edward's translation:

*El alba inútil me sorprende en una esquina desierta; sobreviví a la noche.
Las noches son como olas orgullosas; olas de azul oscuro, de pesadas crestas,*

N.B.

- The translation of "finds" as "sorprende"
- The change of the night/waves metaphor to a simile
- The translation of "topheavy waves" as "olas [...] de pesadas crestas"

3.

Some words have been changed between Zaidenwerg's published translation and Edward's submitted translation. But the rest of the sentence syntax was not changed in response to the changed word. One example:

Borges's original:

of things half given away, half withheld

Zaidenwerg's translation:

de cosas que se dan por la mitad y a medias se retienen

Edward's translation:

de cosas dadas por la mitad y por la mitad se retienen

N.B.

Edward seems to have changed the verbal phrase "que se dan" used by Zaldenwerg to the participial adjective "dadas," but leaving the other verb in the parallel structure in its verb form ("se retienen" instead of the participial adjective "retenidas"). The sentence resulting from this partial change does not make sense in the way that the original makes sense or Zaldenwerg's translation makes sense; it reads like a word was changed without thought to the rest of the sentence.

On 2/6/13 I got home from work to find a 53 year old man on my couch. Without notification Eduardo and my old roommate Einstein Correa swapped rooms. Without my consent Eduardo rearranged the apartment and moved my property. My computer while still operating and plugged in was lifted 4 feet or more and put on top of the desk. The computer now does not work properly. This man has said he wants to take a screen out of the window and leave a window unlocked at all times in case he forgets his key, he can climb in the window. I am not approving of ANY of this and the other roommate, Dan Costello is not approving of this either.

AHERNANDEZ 2/9/2013 15:59:32

ON 2/9/13 AT 1558 HRS HEADQUARTERS RECEIVED A FIRE ALARM IN PHASE 2 K-1-2 HALLWAY. OFFICER DAVIS DISPATCHED TO THE SCENE. OFFICER DAVIS REPORTS ALARM CAUSED BY SMOKE FROM COOKING. ALARM RESET AT 1615 HRS. ALL CLEAR AT 1615 HRS.

JDAVIS 2/9/2013 16:35:36

ON 2/9/13 AT 1559 HRS, THE WRITER WAS DISPATCHED TO K-1-2 FOR A FIRE ALARM. THE WRITER APPROACHED THE K APARTMENT BUILDING AND MET WITH STUDENTS WHO WERE RESIDENTS OF THE BUILDINGS. THE STUDENTS STATED THAT THE RESIDENT OF K-1-2 HAD BURNT BREAD BUT HE WAS STILL IN HIS APARTMENT.

THE WRITER KNOCKED ON THE DOOR FOR K-1-2. THE RESIDENT OF THE APARTMENT OPENED THE DOOR SLIGHTLY AND STUCK HIS HEAD IN THE CRACK OF THE DOOR. THE RESIDENT STATED HE HAD BURNT SOME BREAD, AND ASKED IF THE WRITER COULD TURN THE ALARM OFF, THEN WALKED AWAY FROM THE DOOR, ALMOST PUSHING IT CLOSED WHILE WALKING AWAY. THE WRITER ASKED TO COME IN TWICE, WHEN THE RESIDENT FINALLY LET THE WRITER IN. THE WRITER FOLLOWED THE RESIDENT, "IDENTIFIED AS EDWARD MORALES" TO THE KITCHEN WHERE HE STATED HE HAD BURNT BREAD. MORALES THEN REACHED INTO HIS GARBAGE CAN SHOWING THE WRITER A PIECE OF BURNT BREAD. THE WRITER NOTICED THAT THE FAUCET WAS RUNNING, CAUSING STEAM TO RISE TO THE CEILING. THE WRITER ASKED MORALES IF HE COULD TURN THE FAUCET OFF SO THAT IT DOESN'T TRIGGER THE ALARM

AGAIN, BUT MORALES REFUSED STATING THAT "THAT WOULDN'T TRIGGER CARBON MONOXIDE". THE WRITER CALLED HQ, REQUESTING A SILENCE AND RESET FOR THE ALARM. THE WRITER THEN WAITED ABOUT 2 MINUTES FOR A RESET. THE ALARM HAD NOT YET BEEN SILENCED OR RESET, SO THE WRITER CONTACTED HQ TO ASK WHAT THE SITUATION WAS. HQ STATED THAT THERE WAS ANOTHER ALARM IN THE AREA GOING OFF, AND THAT IT COULDN'T BE SILENCED UNTIL THE OTHER ALARM WAS CHECKED OUT.

WHILE WAITING, THE WRITER THEN ATTEMPTED TO COLLECT THE PEDIGREE FROM MORALES. MORALES HANDED THE WRITER HIS MORE CARD, TO WHICH THE WRITER ASKED MORALES IF HE HAD HIS DRIVERS LICENSE. MORALES STATED THAT HE DIDN'T HAVE HIS LICENSE WITH HIM. THE WRITER ASKED MORALES WHAT HIS ADDRESS WAS, TO WHICH MORALES RESPONSE, "HERE, AT PURCHASE". THE WRITER ASKED MORALES WHAT HIS OFF CAMPUS ADDRESS WAS, MORALES STATED THAT HE LIVED HERE. THE WRITER ASKED IF MORALES POSSIBLY HAD AN OUT OF STATE LICENSE, TO WHICH MORALES STATED, "IT'S NOT HERE." THE WRITER ASKED MORALES WHERE HIS LICENSE WAS, TO WHICH MORALES STATED "IT DOESN'T MATTER, YOU DON'T NEED IT." AT THIS POINT, MORALES BEGAN TO RAISE HIS VOICE, SHOUTING AT THE WRITER, TELLING THE WRITER "I AM ALREADY SUING YOUR DEPARTMENT, ILL HAVE YOUR JOB AND GET YOU FIRED." AT THIS POINT, MORALES TOLD THE WRITER TO GET OUT. THE ALARM HAD NOT BEEN SILENCED IN THE AREA, AND DUE TO PROTOCOL, THE WRITER WAS NOT ALLOWED TO LEAVE UNTIL THE ALARM WAS SILENCED AND RESET. THE WRITER ADVISED MORALES THAT HE WAS NOT ABLE TO LEAVE YET, AS THE FIRE ALARM HAD NOT YET BEEN SILENCED. MORALES HELD THE DOOR OPEN, TELLING THE WRITER "YOU BETTER LEAVE NOW OR ILL GET YOU FIRED!" THE WRITER AGAIN TOLD MORALES THAT HE WAS NOT LEAVING, AS STATED BY PROTOCOL, UNTIL THE FIRE ALARM WAS RESET. MORALES GOT WITHIN A FEW INCHES OF THE WRITER, FACE TO FACE, WITH HIS HANDS IN FRONT OF HIM, BECOMING VERY DISGRUNTLED. THE WRITER ADVISED MORALES THAT IF GOT ANY CLOSER OR PUT HIS HANDS ON THE WRITER, THAT THE WRITER WOULD HAVE TO PLACE MORALES UNDER ARREST. MORALES THEN REQUESTED TO SPEAK WITH THE WRITERS SGT. THE WRITER LAND-LINED HQ AND REQUESTED TO SPEAK WITH LT. JONES. THE WRITER EXPLAINED THE SITUATION TO LT. JONES, AND WAS ADVISED TO LEAVE THE AREA. THE WRITER TOLD MORALES THAT THE WRITER WOULD BE LEAVING, HOWEVER THE ALARM WOULD STILL BE GOING OFF. MORALES TOLD THE WRITER "IT'S OK, YOUR NEW HERE, THEY KNOW ME AT YOUR DEPARTMENT." THE WRITER THEN ASKED HQ IF IT WAS SAFE TO LET THE OTHER RESIDENTS OF THE K APARTMENTS TO ENTER THEIR BUILDINGS. HQ STATED THAT IT WAS INDEED OK FOR THE STUDENTS TO RE-ENTER. THE WRITER LEFT THE K APARTMENT BUILDING, WITH THE FIRE ALARM STILL ACTIVE. SCENE CLEARED AT 1615 HRS.

INCIDENT DESCRIPTION

Edward Morales came in to the Parking Office this morning at approximately 8:50 a.m. and demanded that the 8:50 a.m. loop stop at Starbucks because he is disabled. I tried to explain that it was an express bus and that there are students coming from the WP train station who need to get to classes on time, but he wouldn't let me finish my conversation. He told me that effective immediately he would make the bus stop from now on. He demanded the telephone number of J & R Tours (which I supplied) and wanted my business card (also supplied). Mr. Morales accused me of being unprofessional and discourteous and that he was going to report me for my behavior. He proceeded to get very loud and disruptive creating a hostile environment in the Parking & Transportation Office. Once he began to get verbally abusive I called UPD to ask for assistance. Mr. Morales heard me on the telephone with the Police and he left the Parking and Transportation office before UPD arrived. He told me that I could send the police to Starbucks if they want to speak to him. Officers Roberto Caban and James McGowan responded and went up the hall in Campus Center North to speak with Mr. Morales. Kyle Saud (PCA Staff member) and Justin Andrews (student worker) were witness to this gentleman's irate behavior.

INCIDENT DESCRIPTION

At approximately 8:45AM 04/03/2013, I entered the Parking and Transportation Office to say hello to Donna Salter. When I enter the room, I saw Justin Andrews, Donna Salter, and Edward Morales. Morales was expressing with his frustration with the fact that the express Purchase Loop bus does not stop at Starbucks and was demanding that schedule be changed. Salter explained that at this point in the semester it would be impossible to alter the bus schedule as it would throw off the entire schedule and suggested that Morales place his request in writing. Morales became more frustrated stating that the bus schedule will be changed tomorrow because he is disabled. He began raising his voice in frustration. At that point Salter called UPD, Morales then collected Salter's card and said he was going to Starbucks. Caban and McGowan arrived after I had left the scene.

INCIDENT DESCRIPTION	Mr. Morales is a subject in a pending criminal complaint for Aggravated Harassment, (class A misdemeanor offense of the New York State Penal Law), resulting from an email sent by Mr. Morales to a SUNY Purchase College faculty-staff member (Identity protected), in which this electronic form of communication caused this faculty-staff member to be annoyed, threaten, and alarmed. There is an active order of protection in place, issued by the Town of Harrison Criminal Court, as well as an active Persona Non Grata (PNG) letter in place, issued by SUNY Purchase College State University of New York, Student Affairs Office. Specifically, Morales stated the following via an e-mail directed at staff member Danielle D'Agosto:

3- DD the following is a strong constructive criticism that normally can be said at any company or institution... There is no doubt that you are a great person and a woman. When you say that you never done anything in your career (what ever that is), yes but you have done plenty of others that should have not done. Experience is what you need Danielle. I had seen how soft with employees and how they controlled you. Furthermore, how intertwined you are with your peer workers and staff. It's hard to believe that you have some authority in the school. I always had a tremendous regard for you, I do not think you have what is needed for that position you are holding, and you are damaging the school and the students with it. I have five times the life experience that you in many fields than you, and you have no initiative to take strong decision that can make a difference. Your poor judgment has caused a lot of suffering not only on me but on other students. Furthermore, you are too mature (not to say, you too old) to suffer from peer pressure. You are not an independent creative person, and that is a must lead others. You value your coworkers before you job and worst, your students; analogy...it is like a nurse not taking care of her patient but giving a ride to a co-worker when she is on duty. You failed with my Law and ethic class, just to keep your status with the professor; so was with Naamm (gay gender discrimination) me. You failed to notify SUNY and the Dept. Of Education when you suspected abuse of one of your students and then you hide behind a legal shield that will disappear at any minute just to cover your WCC actions. There are students that have worked for you that have made derogatory statements against your department, and all other departments of the school for that matter different students have done the same. When I created the term "an educated gang"; I did not mean to offend anybody; word for word, that is what peer pressure is or becomes if not stop in time. What if I was some nuts-crazy (which I am not), and being pushed to the end , and I take a machine gun (which I will not) and because of school "gang-like behavior"looses all opportunities to get to law school, then they garnish my SSD check to pay the loans, so I have nothing to live for, thus, this crazy student (not me)goes out to the school and start killing people. This sound like it has happened before..wright? There is a student that was having thoughts in doing just that . She was suspended for one year via Madame Jones. She was going too MD school, so she desired to commit suicide--she could not because of her daughter. You people have the power to destroy lives, but one day someone will act-out on his/her disturbing mind—or temporary insanity--and commit a crime in revenge, and I will be there to testify against you all. And you talk about career and experience, you do not know what you are talking about. Like some of your students have told me she is always into meeting, conferences or too busy; but when it comes to doing what is right for the life and future of a student you fall way short of being honest and professional. All of your employees will be summoned to testify...oh and the free housing!!! You are way short of being professional...sorry for honest with yourself. That is the reason I am bound to continue litigation and include you and Kat. So one day some crazy student would do something stupid and have innocents pay for. You do not have a career yet Danielle. Please forgive my honesty, and accept this strong remarks from a good and loyal friend you both once had.

All the same for you Kath.

Do not get angry at me but be ashamed of your actions through time.
